

Volunteer Pledge

I promise to keep my volunteer hours in check, to keep my spirit and my family first and, to make sure I ask for help when I start to feel overwhelmed.
I vow to compare myself to no one - my time and contributions are my own special gift and, to feel proud that only I can do what I do.
I vow to compare no one to myself, to recognize everyone gives to their best of their time and abilities and, to always remember it is the pieces that make the whole.
I pledge to accept less than perfect, to always remember I am a volunteer and,
to know I am making a difference!
